Semi-detailed lesson plan template

Write the objectives first, then the evaluation that checks them, then the procedure. In a semi-detailed plan, list the main activities and key questions: there is no need to script every teacher and learner line. The procedure uses the 4As; replace the parts with the steps your school or college asks for.

School		Teacher
Learning area		Grade and section
Quarter or term, week		Date and time
Duration		Lesson in the unit	Lesson ___ of ___

I. Objectives

Learning competency (with code)
Copy the exact wording and code from the curriculum guide for your learning area and grade.

Objectives
At the end of the lesson, learners should be able to: a. ... b. ... c. ... (observable verbs; if your school asks for it, one cognitive, one psychomotor and one affective objective).

II. Subject Matter

Topic

References
Curriculum guide, teacher's guide and learner's material pages, other sources.

Materials
Objects, visual aids, activity cards, worksheets, slides.

Values integration (if required)

III. Procedure

Part of the lesson	Min	Activities and key questions	Expected output
A. Preliminary activities
B. Activity

Part of the lesson	Min	Activities and key questions	Expected output
C. Analysis
D. Abstraction
E. Application

IV. Evaluation

Evaluation items, success criteria and answer key
One item or task for each objective.

V. Assignment

Assignment
Practice or preparation for the next lesson.

Notes after teaching (optional)

Remarks and reflection
How many learners met the objectives? What will you reteach or change?

Declaration of AI use (if your school requires it)
Did you use an AI tool? [ ] No [ ] Yes. If yes: tool used, what it did, and how you reviewed it.

Original Draft My Lesson layout, free to use and adapt. The semi-detailed lesson plan is not an official DepEd form: rename, add or remove headings to match what your school, college or cooperating teacher requires. In DepEd public schools, check the lesson planning rules of DepEd Order No. 016, s. 2026 on deped.gov.ph.